

Singapore Airlines has partnered with Medical Travel Companions to offer a premium service that creates independence for customers who love to travel. This exclusive service is the first of its kind and will positively transform the travel experience for customers who require assistance on our flights.

Qualified and experienced companions provide support for:

- The elderly
- Families
- Children
- Customers with disabilities
- Groups
- Individuals recovering from surgery or injury
- Customers who need assistance or companionship

Key Benefits:

- Professional qualified companions
- Friendly and caring assistance
- Offers peace of mind
- Companions will be matched to customer needs

Travel Nannies, Nurses or Paramedics will accompany customers on their flights to ensure a stress-free journey and to provide 'peace of mind' for a safe and relaxed arrival at their destination.

This is a fully flexible service with the ability to tailor a solution to suit everyone's needs. This service is initially available for Australian outbound flights from 13 December 2014.
